12 1. Jurisdiction founded on the existence of a federal question and 13 amount in controversy.

14 2. The action arises under the Constitution of the United States, 15 Article III, Section II, as hereinafter more fully appears.

16 3. The amount in controversy exceeds, exclusive of interests and 17 costs, the sum of $1,000,000,000.00

18 4. Civil rights violations case filed under Title 28, U. S. C., 19 Section 1331, Federal Question Jurisdiction, and Title 42, U. S. C., 20 Section 1983, Civil Rights Cases.

21 5. Federal district courts ordinarily follow state law determining 22 the bounds of their jurisdiction over persons. Daimler Ag vs. Bauman, 23 134 S. Ct. 746, 753 (2014). This is because the federal district court's 24 authority to assert personal jurisdiction in most cases is linked to 25 service of process on a defendant who is subject to the jurisdiction of 26 a court of general jurisdiction in the state where the district court is 27 located. Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(k)(1)(A). Nevada has authorized its courts 28 to exercise jurisdiction over persons on any basis not inconsistent with 29 the United States Constitution.

1           6. On or about January 30, 201 , through Montgomery police officers,
2 the City of Montgomery, Et Al violated the Plaintiff's civil rights
3 detaining the Plaintiff without lawful privilege and without probable cause
4 therefor at alleged "First Baptist Church Montgomery," 305 South Perry 5 Street at intersection of South Perry Street and Scott Street.

6           7. Thereafter, City of Montgomery police officers proceeded to defame
7 the Plaintiff's character by interrogating the Plaintiff as to who was it that the Plaintiff was following.

9           City of Montgomery police continued to state that undisclosed,
10 unnamed persons from "First Baptist Church Montgomery," 305 South Perry 11 Street called the City of Montgomery, Et Al with the false complaint and 12 false report that the Plaintiff was "following a woman," and at some point 13 entered "First Baptist Church Montgomery," 305 South Perry Street.

14           9. The Plaintiff categorically denies all allegations of any unlawful 15 activities the City of Montgomery, Et Al accused the Plaintiff of, and 16 demands this Court to disclose the identities of all third parties involved.

17           10. Unidentified, unspecified Defendants' misconduct and City of 18 Montgomery police misconduct violated the Plaintiff's First Amendment and 19 Fifth Amendment rights of the United States Constitution.

20           11. Righteous indignation and personal humiliation of the Plaintiff
21 was the direct and proximate result of LIBEL AND SLANDER of the Defendants.

22           WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff is demanding Punitive, Actual, and Compensatory
23 Damages, and judgment therefore, against all Defendants for the total sum 24 of $2,500,000,000.00
